Altos Federal Group

A Corporate Snapshot

Altos is a minority, woman-owned company specializing in human capital staffing and management solutions to the Department of Defense and federal government agencies. Our pre-positioned program management team enables us to administer a seamless contract start-up, including credentialing, transitioning incumbents and placing new employees. Our abilities to deploy our national resources and to effectively handle contract surge made Altos a leader in government staffing.

Altos was founded in 1983 by Dr. Paula Shaw, who was named one of the 25 Powerful Minority Women in Business by the Minority Enterprise Executive Council in 2008. Located in Silver Spring, Maryland, Altos currently staffs more than 300 full time professionals to more than 30 government facilities and agencies throughout the United States.

Capabilities

Altos specializes in placing professional, technical, and scientific professionals on permanent, temp-to-perm and contract assignments. Our quick response model allows Altos to provide clients with a seamless contract start-up and transition. Our mobile response model allows us to be responsive to complex and immediate needs of our clients. Our program management model gives our clients a single point of contact with 24 hour availability.

Altos Federal Group Vision Statement

Altos has a deep heritage of operating at the highest level of integrity. Our strong commitment to responsible business practices is reflected in everything we do - from the transparency of our communications with customers and stakeholders clients to the unparalleled benefits we offer to our employees. We strive to provide a great work environment for our employees and to be a beacon of integrity for our clients.

Altos' approach to social responsibility is driven by our Core Values. We are committed to: respect for our employees and role of work in their lives; sharing our knowledge and experience to develop sustainable workforce practices; and striving for excellence through our commitment to develop long-term meaningful working environments.

Our business is, in itself, socially responsible because everything we do is geared toward connecting people with jobs, which enables individuals to support themselves and their families. We connect our permanent, contract and temporary employees to the "right career fit" so they can grow in their careers, thereby improving their long-term career potential.

We strive to be responsible in every aspect of our business; while focusing our resources primarily on where we can have the most impact — creating a bridge to employment — providing a single point of contact for human capital needs, and a rapid response model to manage contract surge requirements.
